Recalls

- Any registered user may recall material that is currently checked out. All materials, checked out by any patron, are subject to recall.
- You may request a recall at the Circulation Desk. We will notify the current user the following day that this item now has a new, earlier, due date. Once it has been returned, we will send you a Hold Pick-up Notice, letting you know that the item is on the hold shelf at the Circulation Desk.
- Each user is entitled to keep an item for a minimum amount of time, calculated from the original check out date, before it is eligible for recall:
o Books - 14 days, Journals - 1 day o Exception: Items recalled by the Reserve Services Desk are due back to the Circulation Desk immediately.

o If you receive a recall notice, it will name a new due date. The item must be returned to the Circulation Desk by that date, or overdue fines will be charged. Overdue fines on recalled items are $1.00 per day, per item.

o Recalled items cannot be renewed.

Overdue and Recall Fines

o Overdue fines for books are generally 10¢ per day. Overdue fines will be charged for late renewals.

o Late respondents to recall notices are charged $1 per day per item.

Renewals

o Most library materials may be renewed up to three times via phone, email, Internet, mail, or in person. They do not have to be returned to the library.

o Exceptions include recalled materials, course reserve materials, and non-print materials from the Jones Media Center and other collections. These materials must be physically returned to the library and may be eligible to be checked out a second time if another patron is not waiting for the material.

o For more information and contact information for each Dartmouth Library: Renewals.

Unreturned Materials

o Patrons are responsible for all materials checked out to them.

o Any materials not returned, lost, or stolen, must be replaced.

o Replacement includes the cost of the book, a billing fee of $15.00, and a processing fee of $25.00.

o If a book is lost or stolen, the library should be notified immediately to stop the accrual of fines and start the replacement procedure.

o If the book is found and returned to the library, the replacement and processing fees will be refunded, but the billing fee of $15.00 will not.

DartDoc (Interlibrary Loan)

o Materials that Dartmouth does not own may be obtained from other institutions through DartDoc.

o This service costs a minimum of $16 per transaction (more if Dartmouth's costs for the transaction are higher). Payment should be arranged at the time the item is picked up.

o First priority is always given to members of the Dartmouth community.
